The Honorable Janet G. Bostwick
Attorney General and
Minister of Foreign Affairs
P.O. Box N 3746
Nassau, Bahamas

Dear Minister Bostwick:

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated October 26, 2000, the text of which reads as follows:

"I wish to confirm the following understanding reached by the Government of the Commonwealth of the Bahamas and the Government of the United States of America with regard to The Bahamas Copyright Act, 1998 and its Regulations:

- (1) The Government of the Bahamas undertakes to make amendments to the Copyright Act and Regulations so as to narrow the scope of its compulsory licensing regime for the reception and transmission of copyrighted works to permit only the compulsory licensing of copyrighted works broadcast free over-the-air. To this end the Government of the Bahamas intends to introduce such amendments into Parliament for consideration not later than the 31 December 2000;
- (2) The Government of the Bahamas also undertakes through its Copyright Royalty Tribunal to begin consultations with U.S. Copyright owners and/or holders in order to provide enhanced equitable remuneration for the compulsory licensing of such free over-the-air broadcasts of copyrighted works and to amend the royalty rate structure established by the Copyright Regulations accordingly;
- (3) In consequence of (1), and (2) above, the Government of the United States reciprocally undertakes to encourage U.S. Copyright owners and/or holders and premium Cable Services (such as HBO, Cinemax, Showtime, The Disney Channel, and so forth) to enter into good faith negotiations with Cable Bahamas for providing voluntary licensing on commercial terms to Cable Bahamas for the Cable transmission of copyrighted works as soon as possible.

I have the honor to propose that this letter and your letter of confirmation in reply constitute an agreement between the Government of the Bahamas and the Government of the United States of America, which will enter into force upon the date of your reply."

I have the honor to confirm that the United States agrees to the understanding set forth in your letter, and that your letter and this reply shall constitute an agreement between the Government of the Bahamas and the Government of the United States of America, which shall enter into force on the date of this reply.

Sincerely,
Charlene Barshefsky
